Walter Eppich, MD, PhD is Associate Professor Pediatrics and Medical Education at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine and he practices pediatric emergency medicine at Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago (USA). Walter's research uses qualitative methodologies to study team reflection, healthcare debriefing, and team adaptation. He studies how talk within teams influences learning and performance in both simulated and clinical workplace settings. He earned a PhD in Medical Education from Maastricht University with a thesis entitled "Learning through Talk: The Role of Discourse in Medical Education".
